

A MOTHER'S TROUBLES

A mother's unending work, and devotion drains and strains her physical strength and leaves its mark in dimmed eyes and careworn expressions—she ages before her time.

Any mother who is weary and languid should start taking Scott's Emulsion of Norwegian Cod Liver Oil as a strengthening food and tonic to add richness to her blood and build up her nerves before it is too late. Start Scott's Emulsion today—its fame is world-wide. It is free from alcohol.

GUARD CHANGES TO BEGIN SOON

Orders are in progress this week at headquarters of the 1st Infantry, National Guard of Hawaii, to break up Co. G as it stands at present, transferring the remaining members to Co. I under Capt. Samuel Ware.

Capt. Louis Kane and other commissioned officers of Co. G will be transferred to the unassigned list or the national guard reserve. Other changes of companies will be announced in a few days.

The formation of a company at Wai- alua, which was to have been yesterday, was postponed until next Sunday owing to press of work in town and at Aiea. It is said the Wai- alua officials believe they can support two companies if allowed.

Yesterday morning the 1st Battalion spent some time in practice maneuvers in the Kakaako district, repelling an imaginary invading party from the shore.

EIGHT NATIVES OF BRITAIN VOLUNTEER FOR DUTY AT FRONT

Eight British born residents of the territory of Hawaii have volunteered for service in the British army through the local recruiting office. These men will enter the army as soon as arrangements can be made for their transportation.

The volunteers and the places of their nativity are as follows: Donald McGregor, Blair Athol, Scotland; Charles Johnstone, Grahamstown, South Africa; George A. Murphy, Daville, Quebec, Canada; William Smith, Liverpool, England; Earl N. Franzén, Victoria, B. C.; Edward Jones, Hollywell, North Wales; Fred T. Pearson, Gilsborne, New Zealand; Melvin C. King, Broome county, Quebec.

MORE WOMEN NEEDED FOR RED CROSS WORK

That more women are needed now to help make garments for use in the Red Cross hospitals on the front, is the assertion of Mrs. Fred Damon, executive head of the Hawaiian Allied War Relief Committee. Mrs. Damon says that materials for such work are plentiful. She wants to have more women cutters. The following ladies already have agreed to assist Mrs. Damon: Mrs. Macfarlane, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. A. L. Smith, Mrs. S. Bickerton, Mrs. W. N. Campbell, Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. J. L. F. Robinson, Mrs. C. L. Basler, Mrs. Cottrell, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. M. Robinson, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. L. Petrie, Mrs. C. Wilder, Mrs. Emma Macfarlane, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. M. E. Grossman, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Miss A. Parke, Miss J. Parke, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. C. Olson, Mrs. A. Horner, and Miss Nora Sturgeon, Mrs. C. B. High, Mrs. Philip Rogers, Mrs. Sam Walker, Mrs. C. G. Bockus, Mrs. J. Spencer, Mrs. T. F. Lansing and Mrs. Laura Weight.

OFFICERS FOR CHINESE SCHOOL ARE ELECTED

A meeting was held by the committee of the Wai- alua Chinese school last evening to discuss school affairs and a set of officers was elected. The meeting was presided over by Chock Lum.

The officers elected are as follows: Chuan Wah Sau, president; Wong Shin Hing, vice president; Chock Lum, English secretary, with Kam Hon, assistant; Ma Wing Yue, Chinese secretary, with Dung Chan, assistant; Chock Chew, treasurer, with Chang En Chew, assistant; Lau Chung Mau, auditor. The directors are Leo Bau, Yuen Suck, Tong Chung Tatt, Leong Wo Lee and Lee Tai. Fifteen committeemen will be appointed by the new president today.

The modern Chinese play, as arranged to be staged tonight by the Wai- alua students for the benefit of that school, will have some music in addition to it. One Chinese boy will play the ukulele, one the guitar and one the violin.

GUARD HEAD WANTS TO ENTER TRAINING CAMP

Brig-Gen. S. I. Johnson, it is reported, has applied to army headquarters to attend the training camp at Schofield Barracks. The general is willing to pay his own expenses and go as extra over the regular "100," in order not to shut out somebody else from appointment. It was also reported recently that Gen. Johnson has applied to the regular army for any commission they saw fit to give him for the present war.

FRED ANGUS COMPLETES TRAINING CAMP COURSE

Among those who finished the military course at the officers' training camp at the Presidio today is Fred Angus, brother of George Angus, manager of Theo. H. Davies & Co.'s hardware department.

Mr. Angus said today that he had no doubt but what his brother passed the course and would soon get his commission.

HAWAII COLLEGE STUDENTS PLAN FOR SCHOOL YEAR

Outside Activities Are to Be Broadened and Impetus Given to Athletics

Anticipating a more active year than ever before, students and members of the faculty of the College of Hawaii gathered at the Outrigger Club Saturday night to make preliminary arrangements.

To look into the organization of the outside activities of the students of the college with particular attention to the extension of their scope, a committee of six students was appointed at the meeting. Those appointed were Miss Katherine Blake, Miss Jannett Sharp, Mrs. Herbert S. Walker, George Bromley, Harry Denison and Charles Poole.

Among other things it will be the duty of this committee to have made a College of Hawaii button which will be worn by the students. It will not only serve as a college insignia, but will be used to take the place of tags formerly given the members of the college athletic association entitling them to admission to all athletic contests.

With Atherton Gilman a prospective football coach for the coming season and plans made for a new tennis court, the college is looking forward to a big year in athletics. Mr. Gilman was formerly a Harvard football player, was chosen for All-American tackle by Walter Camp two years ago and elected captain of the Harvard team. He did not return to Harvard the next year, however, going to Annapolis to assist in the coaching of the team there. He had made plans to go to Wisconsin this fall when Paul Withington, also an island boy, who coached Wisconsin last year, expected to return. Mr. Gilman is now making plans to enter the officers' training camp which opens this summer, but should he not go there, it is probable that he will coach the college of Hawaii team.

A shortage of funds is the only thing that stands in the way of a new tennis court. To meet this the students have planned to give some sort of entertainment every month. One or two plays will be given during the year and a glee club will be organized for the first time.

"The development of this line of activity must be commensurate with the growth of the college," said Mrs. Walker, wife of Prof. H. S. Walker of the college, who is leading in the work for greater outside activity. "The students are doing their part of the work eagerly, and the one thing that stands in the way of our progress is a lack of funds. This we are overcoming to the best ability of us all."

The girls of the college made the arrangements for the dinner which was held at the Outrigger Club. Following the dinner an informal discussion of plans for the year was held and the pre-organization committee appointed. Among those present were Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Prof. and Mrs. Herbert S. Walker, Miss Grace Morgan, Miss Katherine Blake, Miss Jannett Sharp, Charles Poole, Harry Denison and Sidney Nicholson.

JUDGE BANKS TO SPEAK AT AD CLUB LUNCHEON

Judge J. J. Banks of Alabama, assistant U. S. district attorney, will be the principal speaker at the Ad Club luncheon which will be held at the Alexander Young hotel on Wednesday. He has not yet selected his topic, but inasmuch as he has been introduced to the members, it is certain that his talk will be along the lines of the affairs of the day.

One of the best musical features of the season has been secured for this week's program. Mrs. Myrtle Stump, who was the first to set steel guitar to music, will play the steel guitar. She has arranged the music for hundreds of selections, and is perhaps the best known authority on steel guitar music on the mainland. She will play a selection which was written at the Volcano called "Volcano Inspirations."

A small storehouse in which parts of canoes and tools can be placed is being built at the Outrigger Club next to the makai wing of the men's bath house. It will be completed probably within a week.

Balanced Meals—

Have them both tasty and healthful.

Years ago a food was devised to serve two important functions — (1) furnish delicious flavor, and (2) well balanced nourishment.

That food is

Grape-Nuts

It fulfills its office admirably, for it is made of whole wheat and malted barley, with all their splendid nutrition, including the vital mineral salts, which are lacking in much of the food of the usual dietary.

In thousands of homes Grape-Nuts forms part of the daily ration with both young and old.

"There's a Reason"

JOYLAND CIRCUS STILL FAVORITE

While there is no reason for fear on the part of the management of either Ringling Brothers or Barnum and Bailey as a result of the activities of the Joyland Circus, the attraction par excellence at the Bijou theater, there is no doubt but that the purveyors of amusement in Hawaii will be green with envy that it was not they who first thought of introducing a circus in the crossroads of the Pacific after a drought of 15 years standing.

There are two classes of people who attend circuses, boys and girls, between the ages of 1 and 100. Both of these classes have been in attendance at the Bijou during the last several evenings and on Saturday afternoon. The latter mentioned occasion called largely for the attendance of the younger boys and girls, although there was a sprinkling of older folks present. The latter posed as care-takers of the former, but that was merely a bluff and a fine excuse to be on hand.

There is no age limit to the appreciation of the circus. The tired businessman and the tired society matron are equally as well pleased with the performance of the clowns, etc., as is the newboy on the corner. The newboy is rarely on the corner when a circus is in town as he feels that his place is at the circus to fill in any emergency that might arise.

The Joyland Circus proves a real surprise to all. There were but a few followers of amusement but were skeptical when the announcement of a circus was first made. A majority thought it would be a farce and a failure. The minds of all who have sat through a performance have been changed. They vote it immense.

CROOK PLAY IS SEEN AT HAWAII

It is not infrequent that a detective turns crook but for the reverse to happen is rather unusual, but as it is the unusual that makes the popularity of photo dramas, "The Phantom," the Hawaii theater feature, should prove a big attraction. Especially is this true as Frank Keenan and Enid Markey are the featured actors.

Keenan is cast as "Phantom" Farrell, a crook of the famous Raffles type who defies the activities of the police to effect his capture. They are suspicious of Farrell, but can fasten nothing onto him. As a consequence they follow the course of least resistance, so popular with the police, and order him out of town. Through the use of the bushy card of the commissioner who gives the order, Farrell is enabled to gain entrance to the summer home of the wealthy James Bereton. Here he expects to appropriate the pearl necklace owned by Avice Bereton.

Farrell commits a fatal error and falls in love with his intended victim. He gives up the idea of purloining the jewels which are stolen instead by Ratcliffe, a friend of Avice's brother, Bertie. Ratcliffe has Bertie in his power through gambling debts. Farrell scents the theft and foils the plot of the doctor, only to find that the police commissioner has followed him to his home. Farrell, however, finds no difficulty in outwitting the police and his "getaway" in this instance is as spectacular as the balance of the gripping story.

STRONG DRAMA AT LIBERTY THEATER

"Out of the Wreck" is the rather gruesome title of the Oliver Morosco feature film now showing at the Liberty theater. It is a strong drama but not near so gruesome as the name would indicate, although filled with tense scenes and situations. Kathryn Williams is the featured star and she is appearing in a role that is decidedly a change for this artist as she is best remembered for her work in animal pictures, especially in serials.

The story is based on a famous murder trial, related to the author, Maud E. Cornish, by a prominent attorney. Unconsciously, the story carries a vivid indictment of the liquor evil, although it makes no pretense of being a temperance picture or sermon. It deals with a candidate for the senate and the efforts of opponents to discover a flaw in his life or that of his wife. It is found in the past of the wife.

The wife tells her story in a vivid manner. She relates the death of her parents, her meeting with a young man, their marriage which she later learns is illegal, how this man gradually becomes a victim of drink and how, to save her own life, she shoots him. After trial and acquittal she becomes a mission worker; meets her husband and enjoys a happy life until the storm breaks.

That newspaper editors are human beings is proven by the fact that the sight is dropped on the political opponent and the story of the wife's past never sees print.

The ropes around the dance floor at the Outrigger pavilion have been permanently removed. The old charge for a dancing party of over six couples on the club dancing floor has been abolished. Hereafter a charge will be made only when the floor is desired for exclusive use, in which case it will be $20 when no admission fee is charged, and $30 when admission is charged.
